what makes us special.

In a word? People.

People who are courteous, professional, and dedicated to the quality service you expect.

At American Red Ball, customer satisfaction is our primary concern—and has been since 1919. A pioneer in the long distance moving industry, the company is recognized as one of the top van lines in the nation for performance, innovation, and commitment to personal service. A Certified Van Line with American Moving and Storage Association (AMSA), American Red Ball has received numerous industry honors.

- Recognized eleven times in the past eleven years for industry safety awards
- Red Ball agents and drivers have been recognized with some of the industry's highest awards such as the Super Van Operator and the Lifetime Achievement Award.
- Named Top Carrier for Service and Quality by an interstate move manager
- Successfully moved over a half million people

How will we meet the needs of your family or business? With people... American Red Ball people...who know that their most important job is to provide quality service to you, our customer.
